ASTON ABBOTTS PARISH MAGAZINE

Editorial

Two days to the Festival weekend and as I write the rain appears to be setting in for the duration. I hope all will be clear for Saturday, especially as our Fete Chairman has abandoned his holiday plans to ensure his attendance on Fete day. Well done Tony !

John Whyte has just told me that the sponsored walk in aid of the recreation ground funds has now raised £238, with a few more pounds still to come. Thanks go to all of you who have contributed so generously.

I know you have seen the cover before but it seemed appropriate; enjoy the Fete come rain or shine and please give as generously as you can to stalls and raffle, and why not round off the day at the Royal Oak's 'Pig Roast'?

COLIN HIGGS

ASTON ABBOTT'S & CUBLINGTON LADIES CLUB

On June 30th Mr Dorrance paid us a welcome return visit. This time he came to tell us about 'Pebbles on the Beach', a fascinating subject illustrated with wonderful slides. Some of our most beautiful semi-precious jemstones come from the beach. Those different coloured layered pebbles denote the passage of millions of years and the pebbles we kick about on the south coast may have spent millions of years being washed across the North Sea or down from the Scottish mountains. Pebbles are indeed worth more than a second glance.

The end of session Tea Party was held on July 14th in the Vicarage at Wingrave by kind invitation of Mrs Sheila Heffer. Quite a large party, including ex-members from far away enjoyed a happy afternoon and a lovely tea, a raffle and a bring and buy stall. Our Chairman, Miss Bennett, thanked Mrs Heffer for her kind hospitality.

NORA LITTLE

[This will be Nora's last contribution to The Chronicle as correspondent for the Ladies Club. She will be missed, but we wish her every happiness in her move to the north country and assure her of a warm welcome whenever she visits Aston Abbots. Ed.]

WITH LEMONADE AND BOOK AND GAMES

Last months poem on the aston Abbots Festival was well received and many thanks to those who let Shirley know that the credit for authorship goes to CHRISTINE DUNKER a long time resident of Wingrave. The poem, we think, was written about fifteen years ago.

UPDATE

Cllr Colin Higgs took the chair for Friday evenings Parish Council meeting, when D/Cllr Bryan Round explained to members the situation regarding the proposed Easy Rider Track to be situated at Cublington. The Parish Council had given support to Cublington as well as Bryan Round and C/Cllr Reg Keen in opposing the idea on the grounds of noise, excess traffic, environmental health hazards and hygiene, and whether or not it was the right place for such an activity to be sited.

Several planning applications were discussed: a side extension to 22 The Green; Loose Boxes at 2 Longmoor Cottages and additional living accommodation at The Old Masters. It was agreed to accept the Eastern Electricity quote of £30 + VAT (each) to change over to street lighting to photocell lens, and that lamps from Church Row - Bull & Butcher including the Ross Road one, be included in the first stage.

Following damage to the seat in the recreation ground it was agreed to get the seat repaired and also display the bye laws relating to dogs and horses being prohibited in the recreation ground.

A member of the public had asked when the road improvements and new signs would be implemented in Moat Lane/Lines Hill area. The Clerk was asked to write to Bucks C.C. and request some urgent action. It was agreed the Parish Council could support a skip for the Moat Lane/Lines Hill area for mid-September.

David Brown reported on the progress of piped gas connections in the village and advised the meeting that because of the demand for this type of appliance, the work load is enormous and it was unlikely Aston Abbotts would be connected for this coming winter, but was hopeful for early spring.

As a result of the sponsored walk held in aid of the recreation ground £169 had been banked so far. A vote of thanks was passed to Lawrence Hinds for his donation of a junior goalpost.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

I am probably one of the new arrivals mentioned in your magazine who has not yet taken part in many of the local activities. This is due partly to the fact that being self-employed my business takes up many hours, usually twelve each working day. Secondly I have not yet decided how to best offer my skills nor do I know how they would be received. Although I have remained in the background, I can assure everyone that I can be relied upon to fight and campaign against any changes that would threaten to despoil our area. The only event I could offer on my own initiative would be a photograph and slide show in the village hall. One Thursday evening would be the most convenient time.

Bernard Franklin,
3 Church Row.

SUNDAY PAPERS

As there has been no response to my request for someone to deliver the Sunday papers during the holiday period I regret to inform everyone that I shall have to cancel delivery of Sunday papers on JULY 31st, August 7th, 14th, 21st and 28th. Delivery will resume on Sunday 4th September and I shall assume that you require a paper on that date unless you notify me otherwise. I am sorry for the inconvenience caused during this period.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

On July 5th I had two visitors, one from Kimpton in Herts, the other from Minehead in Somerset. The one from Kimpton had visited and stayed here several times, so was proud to be able to take her friend on a tour of the village. They were out for some time and ended up in the churchyard. I cannot convey to you their expressions of enthusiasm, only repeat what they said: "We have visited many churchyards to look at relatives graves, each time having to trample down grass, thistles and briars before we could get anywhere near them. This one is beyond comparison. Really a garden of rest, 'God's Garden' where it would be nice to have a seat to sit and meditate." This was what two visitors thought and appreciated and I am sure many local people who have their relatives resting there, must appreciate to the full, the care and work it takes to keep it in this condition, which is undertaken by a few caring parishioners. I hope you will publish this letter to let these people know how much we others are grateful for their efforts.

Yours truly,

Gwladys M. Hook.

ADULT LEARNING AT WING

ADULT LEARNING AND LEISURE OPPORTUNITIES

Wing Adult Centre, whose office is based at Wing School, provides a range of courses designed for adults. These courses take place during the daytime as well as in the evenings and are located not only at Wing but also in Stoke Hammond, Cheddington, Ivinghoe, Dagnall and Edlesborough.

All our tutors are experts in their subject or activity and they are also trained to teach adults. Their emphasis always is on how they can help you to learn and to find enjoyment and stimulation from your class. This means that our courses are never like 'going back to school' but are a completely different experience in which your own experience and knowledge are fully recognised and valued. Our tutors are also conscious of the importance of creating the right atmosphere in their classes. They know that people learn best in friendly, relaxed groups where they do not feel threatened or have to worry about being 'shown up' or made to look foolish.

This year we have been put into a completely new financial system, called Net Budgeting. We, as a Centre, are now responsible for recovering most of the direct costs of putting on courses and we are no longer able to go back to the authority to ask for special dispensation to run course with low numbers. This is really part of the political movement to make the costs of services provided by local government more visible. It does give us much greater flexibility but, coupled with the recent pay award to lecturers and tutors, it has meant a rise in fees this year which is greater than inflation.

You will notice in the brochure that some courses are marked as being for small groups. This applies to some of the Upholstery classes, Furniture Restoration, and to all the Language courses. We felt that in these classes it would be more appropriate to restrict the size of the groups so that people could get more individual attention from the tutor. Although these courses will have to be more expensive, they will be better value for money. With the Languages, we felt that people would be happier if the group size was limited to 12. This will mean a more relaxed atmosphere, everyone will have more chance to actually practice the language, and all will receive more individual attention.

There are not so many new courses this year as we cannot afford to take so many risks. However, those of you who would like to trace your ancestors will be interested in our course on Family History on Thursday evenings. There will be the opportunity for beginners to start Lacemaking on our new six-week introductory course on Friday mornings, and people can learn to play Badminton on our new Beginners course on Wednesday evenings.

Whatever interest you in the brochure, come along to the free introductory session during the week of the 12th of September and see if you like it before you have to part with any money!

Give us a ring on Aylesbury 688632 if you have any queries or if you have been unable to obtain a brochure.
