Editorial

We're very pleased to include a message this month from PC Michael Griggs, our new community police officer. You may have seen him around the village already, or at the annual parish meeting, which falls just as this issue is delivered. Welcome to PC Griggs, and let's hope he is not snaffled by the Traffic Division quite as fast as his predecessors!

It's snowing at the time of writing, but just to remind you of Spring, the clocks go forward on Sunday 28th March (well we think they do. This diary - Oxfam - says 'provisional'). Our own clock is broken so it won't be doing anything for a while and the kitchen is distressingly quiet.

The toads will soon be crossing Moat Lane again. Please be extra careful driving up there after dark - don't run them over.

Church News

We held our annual Vestry and Parochial Church Council meeting at the end of January and both Len Scutchings and John Ford were re-elected as the churchwardens. We have two vacancies on the church council, so if you are interested the vicar will be pleased to hear from you.

Our fund-raising activity was discussed and so far three events have been arranged for 1993:

Sunday 14th March (note change of date): sponsored walk starting at the Green at 2pm. Forms from Colin (6 Wingrave Road, 681343).

Sunday 13th June, sponsor your favourite hymn, with flower theme to 100 Best Tunes. From 2pm to 5pm with teas; followed by a concert by the December Festival Choir at 6pm.

Saturday 24th/Sunday 25th July, St James's Festival. Flower theme to be Village Life. More details to be announced later.

There are still two vacant allotment plots; please let Len Scutchings know if you are interested in renting one.

Finally we are hoping to start a 100 Club. You pay £15 to be in the draw for a year. Each month a draw is held, with double pay-out in December. We need 100 people to get it started, so if you are interested please contact Colin (681343), Doris (681243) or any PCC member as soon as possible.

RECTOR'S REPORT

I don't think I know many people who actually like February. It is usually a rather depressing month - cold and miserable with the winter bills adding to the gloom. But, as the days lengthen and February turns to March and Winter begins to feel more Spring-like, our outlook on life usually brightens up.

There are many theories about why this happens. Some blame it on the Sun ('What sun?', I hear you ask). It is said that at this time of the year, when the sun is low in the sky, the light strikes a section of the retina of our eyes which triggers a mood of depression. Others suggest that our late-Winter lethargy is caused by our using extra energy to keep our bodies warm. This, incidentally, is a very good excuse for not going on a diet! A slight variation to this theory is that, like other mammals, we have a tendency to hibernate. Although the instinct has been almost bred out of us, our bodies function at a lower level during the cold weather. There are many other possibilities - and the answer is most likely that your guess is as good as mine as to why we are all glad to see the back of February.

As the temperature rises (we hope), so we become more active and our thoughts (yes - our brains work more efficiently when warm) turn to Spring Cleaning. We need to think about our relationships with each other and plan for positive growth - the development of those relationships. At the same time, because we are as human beings an advanced life-form, we can acquire new skills that open up new possibilities for our life. We can also discover our limitations!

Bob Willmott

P.S. I apologise that this letter/report is less well done than in some months. It has been produced under the adverse conditions of a family bereavement. Penny and I would like to thank all those who have befriended Joyce and share in our sadness.

Where are you? There must be more people living in the village who have birthdays in March. Don't be shy, get it in print by phoning me on 681425.

We were very sorry to hear of the death of Jack Howe recently. Jack was landlord of the Royal Oak for several years, and very well known locally.

NOW IVOR CHEEK - The village poet
Thought once again he'd better show it.
He noticed last month - diabolical
His name was mentioned in the Chronicle.
The Christmas show, he thought was dandy,
Especially watching gorgeous Andy.
Next the cabaret, I wonder
Could mighty bosoms burst asunder
Will escapologist be there
Or is he padlocked to his chair;
And as for 'gorgeous' playing drunk
She was a most attractive punk.
Yes, he'll be there that is for certain
He'll sit until the final curtain
But since you do not know his face
How can you keep the bloke a place?

IVOR.

Congratulations

to Roy Malin, who has been elected to serve on the Beds and Bucks Football Association for the next three years. His responsibilities cover all standards of teams, including ladies' teams, in an area from Princes Risborough to Buckingham. Among the committees he will be on is the Youth Committee, so if you are a promising footballer aged between 16 and 18 let him know!

Roy is continuing to be referees secretary for Aylesbury & District Football League.

The Toddlers get stuck into Playdough, always a favourite, so we'll give you the recipe again: 2 cups plain flour, 1 cup salt, 2 cups water, 2 tbsp oil, 2 tsp cream of tartar, colouring. Stir it all up in an old pan over moderate heat until it looks like dough and your arm's aching.

INTRODUCING OUR NEW POLICE OFFICER ....

I am your local permanent beat police constable and look forward to working in and around Aston Abbotts.

I have just over four years service with the Thames Valley Police, mainly working as the area beat officer for Aylesbury town centre. I am 24 years old and married to my wife Joanne. Before joining the police service I was a postman for three years, and at the same time I was a Special Constable with the Hertfordshire Constabulary, working at Hemel Hempstead, where I lived before moving to Aylesbury four years ago. I am from London originally.

As I say, I look forward to working in your area and feel this will be a big change for me from working Friday and Saturday nights in Aylesbury town centre.

If anyone wishes to contact me they can do so on 0296 668218, or write to me at Ivinghoe Police Station, Marsworth Road, Pitstone, Leighton Buzzard, Bedfordshire.

Police Constable 3194

HIGHWAYS & ROAD SAFETY COMMITTEE

Colin Higgs and Caroline Lane attended a meeting of this Aylesbury Vale District Council committee on 16th February. Aston Abbotts Parish Council raised the following items.
Flooding in Wingrave Road: Bucks County Council are to install new kerbing along the front of the houses to stop water collecting in gardens; the parish council signalled its willingness to pay half the cost of kerbing along by the allotments to alleviate flooding here (to be discussed further at next PC meeting).
Junction of Moat Lane and The Green: Bucks County Council officers to investigate possibility of putting reflector posts in to prevent cars mounting the verge and hitting fence and side of house (subject to owners' permission). Salt can be provided but Parish Council must install a bin for it.
Cublington Road: erosion of verge at Cold Comfort corner - Bucks CC have inspected and will take steps, probably kerbing, to keep traffic out of the ditch.

Seat belts New legislation in February 1993 brings together laws on wearing seat belts in cars. Briefly: if a seat belt is fitted you must use it whether you are sitting in the front or the back. It is illegal to carry an unrestrained child in the front seat of any vehicle; if the child is under 3, an appropriate child restraint must be used in the front seat (an adult seat belt is not enough). If in doubt contact the Road Safety Officer at Aylesbury Vale District Council.

Elder Fflower Wine

Take twice six gallons of ye Chrystall Rill,
That issues clearest from the craggy Hill.
Add thirty pounds weight of the glistering grains
The dulcet produce of barbadian canes.
O'er the clear fire then let it simpering play
Till its sixth part be flown in steam away.
Then scum it well & cooling let it stand
Till it will warm & yet not scald your hand.
Of Ale Yeast then fourspoonsfulls of it pour
And of the Syrup spoonsfulls of it four
That the brisk Lemon or fair Citerne yields
The fragrant product of hesoerian feilds.
The work of fermentation then begun
Throw just two quarts of Elder flowers on
Cleared from their stalks & gathered in the sun.
Nice care to stir it every morning take
Till free from fermentation Rests the settled cake.
Then close confine it in the untainted Sun
Till her pale course the moon has three times run.
Then when its sun bright stream will clear the sight
Confine it stricter yet allow it light
Close in its glasey prision let it be
Till the hor Autum sets the captive free
Then as you quaff it gratefully you'll own
The french Champagne by British art outdone.

AYLESBURY Vale Volunteer Bureau, which helps people find voluntary work, has a new co-ordinator from this week.

The current organiser, Mrs Ann Lermitt, is retiring after nine and a half years with the bureau, which operates from Walton House, Walton Street, Aylesbury.

Her position will be taken over by Mrs Shirley Crichton, of Quainton, who has worked in a charity shop and as a counsellor. She did a skills training course at Aylesbury college in the summer.

Mrs Crichton will not be alone as she settles into her new job — assistant Mrs Margaret Chesher will be there to help her learn the ropes.

The bureau is open Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday from 9.15am to 1pm.

Anyone wishing to find some voluntary work can pop in for a discussion, but Mrs Lermitt asks them to make an appointment.

U10s - AWAY TO OAKLEY

The Under 10s first game, arranged against Oakley, should have given the whole squad the chance to play. On the day, only 11 out of 22 turned up. For 5 of these boys it was their first ever competitive game. Wingrave started slowly, but soon got on top and scored first. The goal came from a free kick taken by Paul Rickard just outside the Oakley penalty box, which was headed against the post by Aron Biggs. The ball rebounded back out to James Smith who blasted the ball, which hit the underside of the bar and went in [shades of Geoff Hurst - 1966 World Cup Final]. Halfway through the second half and still 1 - 0 up, Wingrave started to tire [substitutes would have helped!] Oakley missed a penalty and then scored two quick goals. To the boys credit, Wingrave finished the stronger team, and Paul Rickard and Oliver Wiltshire both went close to scoring.

Final score Oakley 2 - Wingrave 1. At the end Wingrave deserved at least a draw if not a win, but more importantly they all enjoyed the game. Both Dave [Wheaton] and myself were pleased with all the boys, particularly those who had played their first competitive game.

Steve Rickard
